SCI/Dignity Memorial Announces Title Sponsorship of Tour de Cure Houston

HOUSTON, June 10, 2015 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Service Corporation International (SCI), North America's largest provider of funeral and cemetery services is continuing to strengthen its philanthropic ties with the American Diabetes Association (ADA) in its hometown, Houston, Texas. SCI, through its brand, "Dignity Memorial", is proud to announce its title sponsorship for the seventh straight year of the ADA Dignity Memorial Tour de Cure Houston.

Since partnering with the ADA, SCI has contributed over $4.5 million to fund critical diabetes research, education and advocacy programs to support children and adults living with diabetes.

"SCI through the Dignity Memorial network of providers is honored to support this event that raises awareness about diabetes," said Rone Luczynski, Managing Director Supply Chain Management at SCI, Fundraising Chair and Chairman-in-Training for Tour de Cure Houston. "Every 21 seconds another person in this country is diagnosed with diabetes, so the chances are we all know a family member, neighbor or co-worker impacted by this disease."

Leslie Robinett, ADA's Houston Tour de Cure Director commented, "We are so grateful for SCI's contribution over the years. The American Diabetes Association has been able to impact many lives thanks to their generous support."

The annual cycling event will take place on Sept. 26, 2015. Registration is now open on the ADA Dignity Memorial Tour de Cure website, where participants can sign up to ride as individual or as a part of a team. The Tour is open to everyone, and offers routes for the novice and expert cyclists.
