PROXY STATEMENT

SOLICITATION AND REVOCABILITY OF PROXIES

This proxy statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation by the Board of Directors of Service Corporation International, a Texas corporation ("SCI" or the "Company"), of proxies to be used at the Special Meeting of Shareholders to be held in the Texas Commerce Center Auditorium, First Floor, Texas Commerce Center, 601 Travis, Houston, Texas, on Thursday, August 8, 1996, at 9:00 a.m., Houston time, and at any recess or adjournments thereof. This proxy statement and the accompanying form of proxy are being mailed to shareholders on or about July 3, 1996.

In addition to solicitation by mail, solicitation of proxies may be made by personal interview, special letter, telephone or telegraph by the officers, directors and employees of the Company. Brokerage firms will be requested to forward proxy materials to beneficial owners of shares registered in their names and will be reimbursed for the expenses. In addition, the Company has retained the services of Kissel-Blake Inc. to assist in the solicitation of proxies either in person or by mail, telephone or telegram, at an estimated cost of $8,000 plus expenses. The cost of solicitation will be paid by the Company.

At June 26, 1996, the Company had outstanding and entitled to vote [117,643,638] shares of Common Stock, $1.00 par value ("Common Stock"). The holders of Common Stock will be entitled to one vote per share on each matter considered. A majority of the votes entitled to be cast must be represented at the meeting, in person or by proxy, so that a quorum may be present for the transaction of business. Abstentions and broker non-votes are counted for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for the transaction of business. Abstentions and broker non-votes will operate to prevent approval of the proposal to the same extent as a vote against such proposal. Only shareholders of record at the close of business on June 26, 1996 will be entitled to vote at the Special Meeting.

The enclosed proxy, even though executed and returned, may be revoked at any time prior to the voting of the proxy by a later dated proxy or by written notice of revocation filed with the Secretary of the Company. Shareholders who attend the Special Meeting may revoke their proxies and vote in person. A proxy in the form accompanying this Proxy Statement, when properly executed and returned, will be voted in accordance with the instructions contained therein. A proxy received by management which does not withhold authority to vote or on which no specification has been indicated will be voted in favor of the proposal set forth in this Proxy Statement.

PROPOSAL NO. 1
AMENDMENT TO RESTATED ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

On June 13, 1996, the Board of Directors of the Company approved for submission to a vote of the shareholders at a special meeting a proposal to increase the authorized number of shares of Common Stock from 200,000,000 shares to 500,000,000 shares by amending the first paragraph of Article Four of the Restated Articles of Incorporation of the Company (as heretofore amended) to read as follows:

"The aggregate number of shares of stock of all classes which the corporation shall have authority to issue is Five Hundred and One Million (501,000,000) shares, consisting of One Million (1,000,000) shares of preferred stock of the par value of One Dollar ($1.00) each (hereinafter sometimes called "Preferred Stock"), and Five Hundred Million (500,000,000) shares of common stock of the par value of One Dollar ($1.00) each (hereinafter sometimes called "Common Stock")."

As of June 26, 1996, [117,643,638] shares of the Company's 200,000,000 authorized shares of Common Stock were outstanding and [13,669,048] shares were reserved for future issuance upon conversion of the Company's convertible securities, warrants and similar instruments, pending acquisitions and under the Company's benefit plans. No shares of preferred stock were outstanding on such date. The Board of Directors has designated 950,000 shares of the Company's preferred stock as Series C Junior Participating Preferred Stock, which may be issued upon the exercise of the preferred share purchase rights that are associated with the Common Stock under the Company's shareholder rights plan.

On June 13, 1996, the Board of Directors approved a 2-for-1 split of the Company's Common Stock to be effected in the form of a stock dividend. Based on the [117.6] million shares of Common Stock currently outstanding, the stock split will increase the total outstanding shares of Common Stock to [235.3] million. In order to effectuate the stock split, it is necessary to amend the Company's Restated Articles of Incorporation to provide for an adequate number of authorized shares of Common Stock. In addition, the proposed amendment to the Company's Restated Articles of Incorporation authorizes shares of Common Stock which would be available for corporate purposes other than the stock split, as described below.

The Company has in the past engaged in and continues to aggressively pursue acquisition opportunities, as acquisitions form a critical part of the Company's growth strategy, which acquisitions could, individually or in the aggregate, be significant in size. These acquisitions may involve, among other forms of consideration, the issuance of shares of Common Stock. The Board of Directors also believes it is desirable to have additional shares of Common Stock available to provide the Company with flexibility in responding promptly to financial and other needs, such as financings, investment opportunities, future stock splits or stock dividends, benefit plans and other corporate purposes.

There are no preemptive rights, subscription rights or other rights to participate in any future offering of securities of any class attached to the Company's outstanding Common Stock or to the additional Common Stock to be authorized if the proposed amendment is adopted. No additional vote of shareholders would be required prior to issuing such shares, except as may be required by law or regulatory authorities or pursuant to the rules of the New York Stock Exchange. The Company's outstanding Common Stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange.

Shares of Common Stock could be issued in one or more transactions. Depending upon the nature and terms thereof, such a transaction or transactions could make a takeover of the Company more difficult and, therefore, less likely. An issuance of additional shares of Common Stock could have the effect of diluting the earnings per share and book value per share of existing shares of Common Stock and diluting the stock ownership of persons seeking to obtain control of the Company. The Board of Directors, however, has no present plans, understandings or agreements to issue the additional shares to be authorized except pursuant to the Company's convertible securities, warrants and similar instruments, pending acquisitions, benefit plans and the proposed stock split. In addition, the Company's shareholder rights plan provides, among other things, that upon the occurrence of certain triggering events holders of the rights may become entitled to purchase shares of Common Stock having a calculated market value equal to twice the exercise price of the rights. At the present time no such triggering event has occurred and the Board of Directors is not currently aware of any facts or activity relating to the Company which would suggest that a triggering event is likely to occur. If such a triggering event and certain circumstances were to occur and rights holders elect to exercise their option to purchase Common Stock, then shares of Common Stock issued upon such exercise might include shares authorized pursuant to the proposed amendment as well as shares available under the current authorization.

Approval of the foregoing amendment to the Company's Restated Articles of Incorporation requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Common Stock of the Company. The Board of Directors recommends a vote FOR the amendment to the Restated Articles of Incorporation, as described above.
