SERVICE CORPORATION INTERNATIONAL PARTNERS WITH NATIONAL ALLIANCE FOR CHILDREN'S GRIEF FOR THIRD STRAIGHT YEAR

HOUSTON, Aug. 31, 2023 /PRNewswire/ -- Service Corporation International (NYSE: SCI), North America's largest provider of funeral, cemetery and cremation services, and its brand, Dignity Memorial®, is partnering with the National Alliance for Children's Grief (NACG) with a grant of $250,000 for the third consecutive year. Funds will be used for programs and initiatives, including new grief support materials, for caregivers of children who have lost a loved one to substance abuse.

Funds will be used for programs and initiatives for caregivers of children who have lost a loved one to substance abuse.

"We are committed to supporting the families who we serve, before, during and after the loss of a loved one. Coping with the loss of a loved one can be incredibly challenging emotionally, especially for children," said Jay Waring, SCI Chief Operating Officer. "We hope to provide a path of healing for grieving children through our partnership with NACG, who will extend the compassionate care we offer to our families every day."

In addition to their partnership with the NACG, as part of their continued commitment to serving grieving families, Dignity Memorial locations also offer:

- The 24-hour Compassion Helpline which provides families access to 13 months of free confidential phone access to licensed professionals trained in grief counseling.
- The Dignity Memorial Guidance Series, a complimentary suite of grief materials featuring insights from renowned grief experts. This extensive collection of booklets, brochures, and online resources offers professional advice and compassionate guidance to help families understand and process the complex emotions of grief.

"We continue to be inspired by the tangible results of our collaboration with Dignity Memorial. Our mutual commitment to supporting children who are grieving, coupled with the NACG's expertise in creating accessible resources and education, reinforces the strength and potential of our partnership. Together, we remain steadfast in our mission to uplift families who have experienced life-altering loss," said Vicki Jay, Chief Executive Officer of the National Alliance for Children's Grief.
